

Citizens is Under Binding Suspension

Tropical Storm Michael

October 08, 2018

Binding has been suspended as a result of Tropical Storm Michael as of 5 a.m. ET, on Monday, October 8, 2018.

Citizens' Binding Suspension Rule: No application for new coverage or endorsement for increased coverage may be bound, written or issued, or monies received, regardless of effective date, when a tropical storm or hurricane watch or warning has been issued by the National Weather Service for any part of the State of Florida.

You will receive a follow-up email notification when this suspension is lifted.

Additional information may be found at <http://www.nhc.noaa.gov>.

Share:

-