

Citizens Is Under Binding Suspension

Hurricane Dorian

agosto 31, 2019

Binding has been suspended statewide as a result of Hurricane Dorian as of 5 p.m. ET, on Saturday, August 31, 2019.

Citizens' Binding Suspension Rule: No application for new coverage or endorsement for increased coverage may be bound, written or issued, or monies received, regardless of effective date, when a tropical storm or hurricane watch or warning has been issued by the National Weather Service for any part of the State of Florida.

You will receive a follow-up email notification when this suspension is lifted.

Additional information can be found at <http://www.nhc.noaa.gov>.

Share:

-